

NORTHWEST RAIL EE OVERVIEW

- Proposed rail transit on the 41-mile corridor between Denver Union Station, Boulder, and Longmont
- Combines rail components of US 36 EIS and Longmont Diagonal Rail Project
- 2007: Refine stations, update ridership model, identify preferred alternative, begin preliminary engineering
- 2008: Draft environmental document/public meeting, completion of 50% design, Finding of No Significant Impact from U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
- 2009-2010: Complete final design; complete railroad negotiations; initiate purchase of land needed for stations
- 2011-2014: Construction
- Early 2015: Open for business

More information at:
www.rtdnorthwestrail.com

